

You will take on the world

CONNECTICUT
COLLEGE

Connecticut College's campus is a stunning 750-acre arboretum in the historic seaport of New London, Connecticut.

A transportation hub five minutes from campus includes train, bus and ferry service, and major airports in Boston and New York City are about two hours away.

A challenging world needs creative, adaptive thinkers

Connecticut College offers Connections, a curricular approach that takes you beyond a traditional liberal arts education. At Conn, all the components of your collegiate life—courses in and outside your major, a study abroad experience, an internship, extracurricular activities, research and a senior project—are integrated around a topic of your choosing. It's a more meaningful method of learning that ensures you'll be insightful and inventive and successful in a world where nothing stays the same for long.

You'll be prepared for anything.

We make our education accessible

You'll be able to afford a Connecticut College education. Our comprehensive fee includes tuition, room, board, fees, special programs, some course-related travel and study away. At the time this brochure was printed, the fee was $85,800. To see the most up-to-date fee, visit <https://www.conncoll.edu/admission/tuition-fees/>. Our aid packages are very generous:

- We meet 100% of demonstrated need for all admitted students, regardless of citizenship.
- Merit scholarships are also awarded regardless of citizenship.

And we make it easy for you to apply!

- There is no fee to submit your application to Connecticut College.
- We do not require standardized test scores. You may submit the SAT, ACT or two SAT Subject Tests of your choosing, but there is no disadvantage should you choose not to submit any standardized test scores.

NOTE: We require proof of English proficiency if English is not your first language. We accept the TOEFL, DET, IELTS or PTE. While there are no minimum required scores, successful applicants typically score around a 100 on the TOEFL, a 130 on the DET, a 7.0 on the IELTS, and a 68 on the PTE.

You'll be part of our great community

You'll find plenty of friends who share your interests and plenty of opportunities to pursue them!

- More than 80 student-run clubs, including pre-professional, political, religious and spiritual, identity and cultural, media, social justice, and special interest options
- A vibrant arts scene for performers and fans
- 28 varsity sports
- Dozens of intramural and club sports
- On-campus events—like lectures, readings, performances, films, dances, discussions and more—happen every day and night
- Unlimited outdoor activities in our 750-acre arboretum campus

You'll also be part of our system of shared governance, in which students have a voice when decisions about the College are made. It's made possible by our Honor Code, which ensures our community is built on integrity and mutual respect.

- For more than 100 years, students have signed and lived by the Honor Code.
- Conn is one of only a handful of colleges with an Honor Code that covers both academic and social life.

Another great thing about our community?

- We're the Camels! We have the best mascot ever.
